On May 25, 2018, CRCL received an email referral from the HHS ORR Division of Unaccompanied Children's Operations regarding unaccompanied minor (b)(6) (h)(6) age 10. The ORR SIR notes the minor was separated from her father (b)(6) (h)(6) while in custody. According to the EARM, the minor and her father presented themselves to Customs and Border Protection Officers at the Hidalgo, Texas Port of Entry on May 21, 2018 "requesting help from the United States and stated he wanted to travel to South Carolina to work." The minor was turned over to ORR custody and processed for an NTA/D, while the father was processed for ER/CF and transferred to the Port Isabel detention Center due to the fact he has been removed from the U.S. on several occasions. This was the only mention of separation in the EARM, and no note of credible fear was made.	CBP	Due Process	Unaccompanied minor	Hidalgo, Texas
